

Program

3:00 pm  Tea

Convene in the Alumni Hall (2nd floor) of the Mosher Alumni House for light refreshments.

3:30 pm  Lightning Talks

A selection of current graduate students and post-docs from Archaeology, Sociocultural Anthropology, and Integrative Anthropological Sciences will give lightning presentations (3 minutes each) about their research.

4:00 pm  Alumni Awards

Three distinguished alumni will be recognized for their achievements and speak about the roles of anthropology today and for the future.

5:00 pm  Reception

Drinks and small plates on the outdoor terrace.

Distinguished Alumni

Archaeology

Christina Torres '03 (University of California, Merced)

Research: bioarchaeology; identity, inequality, health, violence, complex societies in Chile.

Integrative Anthropological Sciences

Clark Barrett '99 (University of California, Los Angeles)

Research: evolution of cognition, theory of mind, learning and conceptual development.

Sociocultural Anthropology

Megan Camey '12 (University of Arizona)

Research: migration and diaspora, critical food studies, health equity and social inequality in US and Europe.